

Members Classification

First: The chamber classifies its members to six categories as follow:

Excellent
First
Second
Third
Fourth
Fifth

Second: the chamber determines the membership class as per to certain elements in the corporation which is:

- Private Funds
- Affairs Volume
- Activities
- Work Location
- Equipments
- Legal Form
- The associates' private funds in the company, they presented a letter assigned in their personal quality and on the full responsibility on the company.

Third: the chamber earns the information concerning the above mentioned elements from the following sources:

- 1- Information and documents available at the chamber
- 2- Information earned from visiting the assigned person the corporation.
- 3- Information from the bank that the corporation deals with.